I Will Plant You a Lilac Tree is authored by Erica Silverman, who, along with her family, survived the horrors of Nazi persecution during World War II. The memoir is rooted in Silverman's personal history—her childhood in Poland, the loss of her family members, and the clandestine efforts to survive in Nazi-occupied territories. The narrative provides a rare, intimate glimpse into the daily realities of Jewish families hidden in attics, basements, and forests, often under the threat of discovery and death.

This story is not just about survival; it is about the resilience of hope and the importance of memory. Silverman's recounting is fueled by her desire to preserve her family's story and to ensure that the atrocities of the Holocaust remain etched in collective consciousness. Her memoir offers readers a window into the emotional and psychological toll of living under constant threat, as well as the small acts of defiance and compassion that provided moments of solace.
