Understanding Portland State University Graduation 2014 Tickets

What Are Graduation Tickets?

Graduation tickets are official passes that grant admission to the commencement ceremony held at Portland State University. Since the event is typically held in large venues with limited seating capacity, tickets are distributed to ensure fair and organized access for all attendees. These tickets are usually required for guests to enter the ceremony hall, and they help manage crowd control and safety.

Why Were Tickets Necessary for the 2014 Graduation?

In 2014, PSU's graduation ceremony was expected to draw a large crowd, including students, families, friends, and university staff. Graduates of 2014 were typically eligible to receive a set number of tickets based on their academic department and the venue's capacity. The process involved several key steps:

- Ticket Request: Once registered, students could request tickets via an online form or in person, depending on the university's procedures for that year.
- Allocation: Tickets were allocated based on availability, with some departments or programs possibly receiving more due to larger expected attendance.
- Pickup: Graduates were notified when and where to pick up their tickets, often at designated campus offices or during specific distribution events.

Important Dates for Ticket Distribution in 2014

While specific dates may vary slightly each year, typical timelines for 2014 included:

The university typically set a limit on tickets per student to ensure equitable distribution. In 2014, most graduates received between 2 to 4 tickets, with some departments possibly receiving additional access based on venue capacity. It was important for students to confirm their ticket allotment during the request process.

Guest Admission and Restrictions

While tickets were necessary for most guests, some exceptions or special arrangements might have been available for guests with disabilities or special needs. Additionally, the following policies applied:

- All tickets were non-transferable and had to be presented at the venue entrance.

- Children under a certain age (often 2 or 3 years old) might not have needed a ticket if seated on a parent's lap, but this varied by venue policy.
- Replacements for lost or damaged tickets were generally not issued, so students and guests were advised to keep tickets safe.

Additional Guest Tickets and Overcapacity Solutions

If the demand exceeded the allocated tickets, the university sometimes offered options such as:

- Live streaming of the ceremony for guests without tickets.
- Viewing areas or overflow rooms equipped with screens.
- Special arrangements for family members with disabilities or health considerations.

Students were encouraged to plan early and communicate with the graduation office for any special needs or ticket requests beyond the standard allotment.

Once students picked up their tickets, they should:

- Verify the number of tickets received and ensure they are for the correct ceremony date.
- Share tickets with guests in advance, especially if multiple guests are attending.
